

Philip Street Communities & Families Precinct Advisory Committee Engagement Application Form

The Philip Street Communities and Families Precinct Advisory Committee is a dedicated formal Advisory Group of passionate community members representing different sectors in the community.

The Committee offer feedback and advice to Council on strategic planning, management, and service delivery to ensure services, programs and activities are responsive to the community needs.

Bringing different perspectives and ideas to the table, they also help with the operations and management of the area. Their primary function is to channel the 'community voice' into the precinct.

The Advisory Committee members meet on the second Thursday of every second month.

External organisations can consult with Advisory Committee members and gain feedback on Philip Street Communities and Families Precinct related topics that could provide opportunities within their organisation and the community.

Where a person or other body wishes to consult or seek input from the Advisory Committee on a matter, a formal request must be lodged with Committee's secretariat, which includes a briefing note.

Officers, in consultation with the Advisory Committee will assess the relevance and appropriateness of the request.

Council Officers will be the decision makers on whether the request is granted or refused.

If you wish to progress your engagement, please complete the form below and submit to communities@gladstone.qld.gov.au or in person at the Ngallil Building, Philip Street Communities and Families Precinct, 1 Pengelly Street, Gladstone QLD 4680.

Should you need any further information please call Gladstone Regional Council's Community Partnerships team on 07 4976 6300.
