Abandoned vehicles go to auction

They say one person's trash is another person's treasure – and Gladstone Regional Council have some treasures waiting for you.

Eight abandoned vehicles and one yacht will go under the hammer on Tuesday, 18 June from 11am at the Gladstone Waste Transfer Station, Joe Joseph Drive.

Conditions of sale and photographs are listed in the abandoned vehicles auction catalogue which can be viewed at www.gladstone.qld.gov.au/abandoned-vehicles in the 'Current Public Notices' area.

Potential bidders interested in attending are advised no open shoes are permitted on site.

Attendees will also be given a site induction.

Please refer to the auction catalogue for terms and conditions.
