

MEDIA RELEASE

10 April 2019

Adam Harvey to provide star power as we all *Band Together

Nothing is going to be Better than this – one fantastic night full of community spirit and great entertainment – Gladstone Regional Council’s bushfire benefit concert – Band Together.

Flying in to headline the concert, well-known musician Adam Harvey will rock the Wartburg Sport and Recreation Ground this Saturday night.

Gladstone Region Mayor Matt Burnett encouraged all members of the community to band together and enjoy a night of great family entertainment.

“It’s set to be an awesome night, with great local acts, Adam Harvey and plenty for the family to see and do,” Councillor Burnett said.

“There are free return buses to the concert available throughout the Gladstone Region, so everyone can come from far and wide to join in on this community event.”

All seats on the bus must be booked by 11am Thursday 11th April. To book your seat on the bus/shuttle bus or for additional pick-up locations, please contact Gladstone Entertainment Convention Centre on 4972 2822.
