EOI window for next round of RADF submissions closing this week

Expressions of interest for Round Two of Gladstone Regional Council's 2019-2020 Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) close at 4pm, on Friday 31 July, ahead of applications closing on Friday 28 August.

Short-term projects starting after October 6 may be eligible for funding in the following categories: Developing Regional Skills, Building Community Cultural Capacity, Regional Partnerships, Cultural Tourism, Concept Development and Contemporary Collections/Stories.

Gladstone Region Councillor and RADF Chair Glenn Churchill said the long-running RADF program has a proven track record of delivering quality arts and culture projects, while supporting professional and emerging artists, and cultural workers in the Gladstone Region.

"RADF promotes the role and value of arts, culture and heritage as key drivers to support diversity and inclusivity," Councillor Churchill said.

"It also helps in growing strong regions, while providing training, education and employment opportunities for Queensland artists and local communities."

RADF is a partnership between the Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council to support local arts and culture in regional Queensland.
