Art Gallery seeking creatives who want to share their valuable knowledge

Do you have an artistic flair and want to share your skills and knowledge with others?

Gladstone Regional Art Gallery and Museum (GRAGM) is seeking Expressions of Interest from artists, creatives, teachers, and/or enthusiasts to conduct art class tutoring for adults, starting from April 2021.

Potential tutors should have skills in the following broad areas: Painting, Drawing and Printmaking, Jewellery, Ceramics and Sculpture, Design, Textiles and Craft, Performing Arts, Creative Writing, Photography, Digital, Film and Media, Indigenous Programs, Our Natural World, Woodwork and Metalwork, Fitness, Wellbeing and Lifestyle, Preservation, and Heritage Programs.

Gladstone Region Councillor and Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) chair, Glenn Churchill said the EOI period will be open for the entire year, with the first lot of classes running in line with the Term 2 school calendar.

“The majority of these classes will be held at GRAGM, either daily, after hours, and/or at weekends depending on the tutor’s availability,” Councillor Churchill said.

“GRAGM will work with each successful tutor to tailor classes to suit their skills as well as community needs.”

Expressions of Interest can be emailed to gragm@gladstone.qld.gov.au with the subject line ‘Tutoring Art Classes at GRAGM’.

Please include your CV and a cover letter outlining your skills and expertise.

The deadline for Term 2 submissions is Friday, 5 March.

For more information, visit the Gladstone Regional Art Gallery and Museum website (www.gragm.qld.gov.au) or call 4976 6766.
