EOI window is now open for RADF Round Two submissions

Gladstone Regional Council's Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is accepting expressions of interest for individuals and local arts and cultural groups to apply for funding during the RADF Round Two 2020-21 window.

Expressions of interest for RADF Round Two close at 4pm on Friday 30 July, ahead of applications closing on Friday 27 August for projects that commence after 6 October 2021.

Gladstone Region Mayor Matt Burnett said short-term projects may be eligible for funding in the following categories: Developing Regional Skills, Building Community Cultural Capacity, Regional Partnerships, Cultural Tourism, Concept Development and Contemporary Collections/Stories.

"RADF promotes the role and value of arts, culture and heritage as key drivers to support diversity and inclusivity," Councillor Burnett said.

"It also helps to grow strong regions and provides training, education and employment opportunities for Queensland artists and local communities.

"Free grant writing workshops will take place during this round between 29-31 July, with individual sessions by appointment.

"Please contact the friendly team at Gladstone Regional Art Gallery and Museum if you have any questions surrounding RADF Round Two funding."
