

These issues are way more important than starting up Steiner Schools and taking over public spaces. Now the surf club is a school where are the parks for the community?

In addition I would like to raise concerns about the existing lack of infrastructure around school zones I believe if a school is to be approved it should have a "Mainroads approved school zone".